If you are interested in receiving the newsletters from the campground throughout the year, please stop in at either the Business or Registration offices and leave your address or e-mail address. If you have already given your information, but don't receive the newsletter, your address or e-mail address might have been written illegibly or mis-typed. Feel free to stop in at the business office to double-check that your information is correct.

For anyone who feels led to donate financially to the sound equipment fund for the tabernacle, please stop in at the business office to inquire. We are borrowing the majority of our equipment for this year, so the goal is to be able to purchase equipment that will stay at the campground, to be used for any functions throughout the year, but mainly for Camp Meeting.

We are in need of:

- A sound board
- Microphones
- Microphone cords
- Outdoor speakers

A laptop or PC for working the visual presentations
Various other pieces of equipment

A sub-committee will be formed later this year to work specifically on the audio and visual equipment situation. If you are interested in serving on this sub-committee, please stop by the business office and leave your name, address, e-mail address and/or phone number with Sandy Turk.

Thank you!

The St. Louis Camp Meeting of the Church of God Association by-laws are in dire need of updating/revising, and the Board of Directors would like to form a sub-committee to focus on this task. If you are interested in serving on this sub-committee, please leave your name, address, e-mail address and/or phone number at the business office with Sandy Turk.

Calling all Adults!!

There are two exciting opportunities for you to interact, be challenged, and learn in smaller settings throughout this week:

8:45 – 9:45 a.m.

“Early Risers” study in the Senior Building, facilitated by Andrea Muzer. The study focuses on “Jesus’ Final Week”.

10:30 a.m. – Noon

Adult conference in the tabernacle, facilitated by Pastor Herb Shaffer. He will be focusing on Job. Bring your Bible and something to write with!

We have a monetary challenge to meet again this year! For every five (5) people who donate $250 to the campground, an anonymous donor will give an additional $250! Last year, we raised over $11,000 with this challenge!

As of Monday evening, we are well into our seventh round of this challenge!
THANK YOU TO ALL WHO HAVE GIVEN!

If you would like to add to this challenge, or create a new one, stop in at the business office and have a chat with Sandy Turk!

Our goal for camp meeting offerings and donations is at least $20,000. We are well on our way, but still need your help! The donations brought in during camp meeting fund new roofs, building upkeep and maintenance, electrical upgrades, and other various costs to run the campground throughout the summer. We depend on you all and your generosity to keep this camp going throughout the year!

CALLING ALL LADIES!

Do you like to sew? Do you quilt? Do you want to make blankets to benefit missions?

Then we have something just for you!

Bonnie Whitaker is hosting a sewing and quilting session every day this week from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Senior Building.

She will be making lap blankets and quilts to be donated to local women's missions and VA hospitals. If you are interested in joining the fun, stop by in the afternoon and enjoy the fellowship!

If you would like to bring a craft of your own to work on, feel free to do so!

If you would like to support the St. Louis Campground financially at any time throughout the year, you can send your donation to:

In the foyer of a church, a young boy was looking at a plaque with the names of men and women who had died in various wars. He asked the pastor, "Who are these people?" The pastor said, "Those are members from our church who died in service." The boy asked, "The early service or the second service?"

When I asked my friend if she was planning to attend church, she just shook her head. "I haven't gone in a long time," she said. "Besides, it's too late for me. I've probably already broken all seven commandments."

Giving a sermon one Sunday, I heard two teenage girls in the back giggling and disturbing people. I interrupted my sermon and announced sternly, "There are two of you here who have not heard a word I've said." That quieted them down.

When the service was over, I went to greet people at the front door. Three adults apologized for going to sleep in church, promising it would never happen again.

Toward the close of a banquet held during an Episcopal Church convention some years ago, the bishop of the diocese stood up and quite disrupted the entire affair by announcing, "We will reserve the entertainment of the evening until the waitresses have taken everything off."
